BROOKHAVEN NATIONAL LABORATORY

Art Auction Will Benefit Your Collection and a Scholarship Fund

Jane Wooster Scott is well-known as America's foremost primitive artist, and her colorful, energetic paintings of Americana are collected by such celebrities as Marlon Brando, Carol Burnett, Valerie Harper, Paul Newman and Sylvester Stallone.

Serenity II, by Itzchak Tarkay

Along with such acclaimed artists as Graciella Rodo-Boulanger, Michel Delacroix and Itzchak Tarkay, Scott is one of dozens whose work will be sold at an auction in Berkner Hall on Saturday, March 19, to be run by Marlin Art Inc., of Deer Park.

Sponsored by Brookhaven Women in Science (BWIS) to benefit the Renate W. Chasman Scholarship Fund, the auction will feature originals and prints in a wide variety of media, ranging from oils and watercolors to graphics and enamels, and may or may not include the works shown here.

The artworks will be available for inspection at 7:30 p.m., and the auction will begin at 8 p.m. The $5 admission fee includes wine and cheese during the preview and the opportunity to win a door prize.

The average price for the artworks is expected to range between $50 and $200. Checks are preferred, but credit cards will also be accepted.

Doc's Race With the Stork, by Jane Wooster Scott

BWIS is hoping for a large turnout, since the percentage of profit that benefits the scholarship fund increases with the number of people in attendance. Honoring the late accelerator theorist whose work with Ken Green formed the basis of the design of the storage rings for BNL's National Synchrotron Light Source, the Renate Chasman Scholarship Fund was established by BWIS in 1986 to encourage Long Island women to resume their education in scientific and technical fields.

Tickets will be sold at the door, and advance tickets can be purchased from:

See Camp Upton Via Southampton

Friends of the BNL Science Museum, which is run by Public Affairs' Tour Program, can now appreciate some familiar objects in a new setting, when some of the exhibits from the Lab's Camp Upton Collection are lent by special request to the Parrish Art Museum at Southampton for a new exhibition.

Called "Modern Meets the Masses: 1910-1920," the exhibition is the result of a collaboration between Parrish Museum staff and local high school students to examine social, political and artistic issues and developments of the period.

Long before becoming a national laboratory in 1947, the BNL site was the U.S. Army's Camp Upton. During World War I, thousands trained here before going overseas. A typical soldier was Second Lieutenant John Weeks III of the Signal Corp, whose uniform and photograph were donated to the BNL Science Museum by his son, Senior Metallurgist John Weeks of the Department of Advanced Technology (see photo).

Joining these items at the Parrish Museum will be old barracks photos, including some from Private Irving Berlin's Broadway hit Yip Yip Yaphank, a bayonet and scabbard, and even manuals of field artillery and provisional drill and service regulations, which were discovered in a friend's attic and added to the then just-beginning Camp Upton Collection by Alan Schmidtchen, Photography & Graphic Arts Division.

See the exhibit through April 10, from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays and Thursdays through Saturdays, and 1 to 5 p.m. Sundays.

Commuter Surveys: Return Them Now

If snow shoveling has kept you from completing and returning your commuter survey, which was distributed on February 10 and originally due February 22, there's still time to get it in the mail to Jeff Williams, Bldg. 129B, and help BNL make plans to lighten the Lab's morning traffic load.

Daffodil Benefit

Again this year, BERA will take part in the sale of daffodil bouquets to benefit the American Cancer Society, which will receive all proceeds.

Make reservations for bouquets, which cost $5 each, at the BERA Sales Office, weekdays, 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Pick up reserved daffodils there on Thursday, March 24. Daffodils will also be on sale that day in the Berkner Hall lobby, from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

For more information, call Andrea Dehler, Ext. 3347.

IBEW Meeting

Local 2230, IBEW, will hold its regular monthly meeting on Monday, February 28, at 6 p.m., in the Knights of Columbus Hall, Railroad Avenue, Patchogue. On the agenda will be regular business, committee reports and the president's report.

Network System Due For Upgrading

The Network Services group of the Computing & Communications Division has scheduled Saturday, February 26, from 9 to 10 a.m., for an upgrade to the Domain Name Server network system named BNL.GOV. This will interrupt service of computer name and IP address resolution briefly. For more information, contact the Network Services group, Ext. 7140.

Women's History On Display

How much do you know about women's contributions to science throughout history? No matter how much that may be, you'll learn even more if you stop by the Berkner Hall lobby any time, from March 1-10.

There, you'll find a display mounted by BNL's Women's Program Office. Women's Program Coordinator Victoria McLane invites BNLers to stop by the posters and pictures, which celebrate Women's History Month and detail the careers of notable women in the history of science.

The Laboratory's placement policy is to select the best-qualified candidate for an available position. Consideration is given to candidates in the following order: (1) present employees within the department/division and/or appropriate bargaining unit, with preference for those within the immediate work group; (2) present employees within the Laboratory; and (3) outside applicants. In keeping with the Affirmative Action plan, selections are made without regard to age, race, color, religion, national origin, sex, handicap or veteran status.

Each week, the Personnel Division lists new placement notices.
