

Brookhaven National Laboratory's 9th Bi-Annual Procurement Fair

When: Friday, April 30, 2004 Time: 8:30 am to 3:30pm

Where: Brookhaven National Laboratory (BNL)
Brookhaven Center
Upton, NY 11973

Cost: Free

The purpose of the conference is to acquaint all types of small businesses with the procurement opportunities available to them at BNL, and L.I. prime contractor's/government agencies, and help them meet their prime contract subcontracting goals.

Congressman Timothy H. Bishop will be the keynote speaker.

Two (2) FREE workshops will be held in the morning:
"SBA Certification for Minority and HUB-Zone Small Businesses" and "How to Market Your Business to the Government"

After the workshops, the BNL department representatives/Buyer's and the participating L.I. agencies will meet with all small businesses on an individual basis.
