

Dog Days Blues Festival

Kerry Kearney

As part of the Dog Days Blues Festival, on Friday, August 10, the Kerry Kearney Band, 3 AM (3 American Men), and the Jacks O'Diamonds bands will perform at 6 p.m. in the Brookhaven Center. Sponsored by the BNL Music Club and the Long Island Blues Society, the events are open to the public. Visitors to the Laboratory age 16 and over must bring a photo ID.

Long Island guitarist/songwriter and singer Kerry Kearney and his band will headline the Dog Days Blues Festival. Kearney and his band are well known in the music arena and have performed in small venues, as well as in front of thousands at festivals such as the annual Riverhead Blues Festival.

Veteran musicians 3AM, will open the show with a wide variety of classic songs from the 60s, 70s, 80s, and 90s, as well as contemporary music.

Jacks O' Diamonds, a high-energy trio, perform original compositions as well as versions of songs by legendary musicians such as Jimi Hendrix, B.B. King and Stevie Ray Vaughn.
