

Dear Adopt-a-Platoon Supporters,

Another way you can get the word out is to write a letter to your local newspaper. Below is an example of what you can write:

Dear Editor,

It is more important than ever that we as a Nation let our military Service Members deployed to Iraq and Afghanistan know that they are not forgotten. Letters, cards and care packages sent to our Nation's deployed Troops serving far from home mean more to U.S. Troops than words can say...Your help is needed to ensure that we never forget those who serve on our behalf.

AdoptaPlatoon is a national non-profit organization serving the U.S. military by providing a program for Americans to send mail support in the form of cards, letters, and care packages to deployed U.S. Troops.... Families, civic groups, clubs, schools and businesses can participate and let our Nation's Troops know that they are not forgotten!

To learn how you can support our deployed Troops, visit the AdoptaPlatoon website at www.adoptaplatoon.org and remember a Soldier's words when he says, "Please support us as your sons and daughters who have more than dedicated our lives to keep America great!"
