

A Walk for Beauty... began in 1994 as a community effort to raise awareness about breast cancer and to establish a boutique for people with cancer. The Unique Boutique, a collection of shopkeepers in Stony Brook Village Center, provides products and services for patients with cancer. The Walk for Beauty Fund enables patients with cancer to purchase wigs, prostheses and other special products through the Unique Boutique. Since 1996, the Walk for Beauty has supported breast cancer research at Stony Brook University (SBU). In 2002, the Walk broadened its scope to include prostate cancer. Proceeds from the 2006 Walk for Beauty will support breast and prostate cancer research at Stony Brook University.
