

Entrepreneurs' Foundation Workshop Series

An informative on-going series for Long Island entrepreneurs to learn as they network and connect. Each topic is designed to help entrepreneurs take one step closer to their vision of building new ventures. All events are open to the public.

FUNDING YOUR TECHNOLOGY-BASED STARTUP

You've got the idea, you've got the team, you've got the marketing plan — so how do you get the money? Come hear our panel of investors and entrepreneurs discuss funding your technology-based startup.

Panel to include:

Jim Chinitz

CEO, Population Diagnostics Inc.

Michael L. Faltischek

Partner, Ruskin Moscou Faltischek, P.C.

Clayton Besch, PhD

Director, Small Business Technology Investment Fund

Murat Ozsu

Founder and CEO, innRoad

Steve Winick

Top Spin Partners, VC

John May

Angel Investor

Moderated by:

Allan H. Cohen

Partner, Nixon Peabody

Monday, July 25, 2011

5:00 – 7:30 p.m. at the Brookhaven Center, South Room, Brookhaven National Laboratory, Upton, NY

Registration and Networking

5:00 – 5:30 p.m.

Panel Discussion

5:30 – 6:30 p.m.

Networking with Refreshments

6:30 – 7:30 p.m.

Cost

$10 for either online or at-the-door registration.

To register online please log onto <http://www.bnl.gov/efw>

For more information on this and upcoming events please contact Kimberley Elcess at 631-344-4151 or elcess@bnl.gov

Visit us at <http://www.bnl.gov/tcp/> to learn about exciting new technologies developed at Brookhaven National Laboratory.