2012 Postdoc Research Symposium

In honor of 2012 National Postdoc Appreciation Week, Stony Brook University's Office of Postdoctoral Affairs will be holding its first Postdoctoral Research Symposium on Thursday, September 20. The goal is to promote a sense of community by having postdocs from SBU, Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory and Brookhaven National Laboratory informally educate each other about the research they are working on. The event is also meant to give postdocs an opportunity to network with SBU faculty, staff and local employers.
