

ASIAN PACIFIC AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

In celebration of Asian Pacific American Heritage Month

Sponsored by the

BERA Asian Pacific American Association

WEDNESDAY, MAY 28th

Cultural Dances from China

12:00 pm – 1:00 pm

Berkner Hall Auditorium

Brookhaven National Laboratory

~~~~~ Program ~~~~~

“春风里阳光下 A Sunny Spring”

Wei Chen, Jing Chu, Jenny Fung, Nancy Li, Mei Li, Geng Liu, Xiurong Sun, Yan Yu, Rosy Zhang
On a sunny spring day, everything is thriving across China, from the Great Wall to the South Sea. Joyful songs fill the air, bringing hope of abundance and prosperity to every corner of the land.

“心泉 The Spring of Joy”

Wei Chen, Jing Chu, Jenny Fung, Nancy Li, Mei Li, Geng Liu, Xiurong Sun, Yan Yu, Rosy Zhang
Xinjiang is a beautiful vast region in the northwest of China, populated by many ethnic nationalities with great traditions in singing and dancing. Also known for its forests, minerals, and oil reserves, this region has a unique appeal not only to all of China but also to the world. This dance describes a group of Xinjiang girls joyfully fetching water from a local spring.

Check our website for up to date information about our upcoming Asian Pacific American Heritage month events, go to <http://www.bnl.gov/bera/activities/apaa/>