Dear Fellow BREA Members,

You may have noticed BREA’s new logo on the address panel as you opened this newsletter. A word on that latter.

In June, we held our annual spring luncheon where about 70 members and guests had an enjoyable afternoon greeting each other and catching up with happenings during the ‘Golden Years’ of retirement. We should all thank Liz Seubert for organizing this event.

Our guest speaker was Steven Coleman, Director of the Environment, Safety and Health Department. He gave an interesting talk about the changes in safety culture throughout his 25+ years at the Laboratory.

Although the attendance was less than in past years, a good time was had by all. Many of us are in the photos in the center spread of this newsletter. You can see the full spread of photos – in color! – by clicking on the link “Annual Luncheons” on BREA’s website: https://www.bnl.gov/bera/activities/brea/.

A year ago I announced a competition to have a new logo for BREA. There were about a dozen entries, and a committee of past presidents, headed by Liz Seubert, had the difficult task of picking a (continued on page 4) winning design. They worked hard and found two entries, one by Jim Lemley who contributed a Long Island motif, and one by Don Sievers who presented a sunrise. Liz then enlisted Jen Abramowitz, Senior Graphic Designer at BNL, who translated the two entries into a professional logo that you will see in this newsletter and on the BREA website. For their efforts, Jim, Don and Jen were our guests at the June luncheon. I thank all who contributed a design and especially Jen for her talent and skill.

I wish you all a very healthy, happy and safe summer. There will be no BREA meeting in August. If I don’t see you for our July 9 meeting, I’ll see you in September.
