

OBITUARIES

Regina David

Regina (Genie) David, 85, of Brookhaven Hamlet, died Sept. 7. Mrs. David worked as senior personnel representative at Brookhaven National Laboratory, coordinator of Literacy Volunteers of America for Suffolk County, assistant director of personnel for the College Board in New York City, and as a clerk at the Sou'Wester Bookshop in Bellport. She was an active member of Mary Immaculate Church in Bellport. She was also a board member of the NAACP, president of the League of Women Voters, and volunteered much of her time to the Fresh Air Fund, St. Vincent de Paul Society, INN Friendship Soup Kitchen, and served as a mediator with the Suffolk County courts. Mrs. David loved reading, entertaining and playing Scrabble. An avid traveler, Mrs. David visited 48 states in the United States and spent time on all seven continents. Many of her trips were humanitarian, delivering school supplies to students in Russia and South America, or assisting Sahrawi of Western Sahara.

She is survived by her husband, Donald David; her children, Darcy Mallon, Mary and husband, Rick Keever, Susan David and husband, Mike McGovern; her siblings, Gerri and Peter McConnell, Merry Elmore, Tish Gavan and Deedee Giersch; her grandchildren, Christen, Kelsey and Derek Fry, Forrest and Amber Mallon, Theo and Cordelia McGovern; and her former son-in-law, Lex Mallon. She was predeceased by her sister, Kathy DeCew; and her son-in-law, Kevin Fry.