

Obituary: Robert James Lombardi

Robert James Lombardi, a police sergeant with BNL's Laboratory Protection Division, passed away on August 2, 2015, at the age of 54.

The following obituary appeared in the South Shore Press on August 12, 2015:

Robert James Lombardi, of Manorville, formerly of Riverhead, passed away at his home, surrounded by his family on August 2, 2015. He was 54 years old. Born in Riverhead to John and Alice Lombardi. He graduated from St. Isidore's and Mercy High School and was a retired police sergeant with the Laboratory Protection Division at Brookhaven National Laboratory. Bob cherished his family and friends above all and enjoyed nothing more than simply being close to the people he loved. His family and friends are left with warm memories of a man who was the most loving, kind, and gentle husband, father, brother, son, uncle, and friend that anyone could ask for. His presence in their lives is irreplaceable and he will be sorely missed. Predeceased by his parents, Bob is survived by his loving wife and best friend, Arlene and their son Daniel Wolochuk. He will be sadly missed by his siblings Linda Myrden (John), John Lombardi (Donna), James Lombardi, all of Riverhead, sister Cynthia Schafer (Joseph) of Manorville, and by his beloved nieces and nephews; Alisha, Sean, Amanda (Michael), Diana, John, Samantha, Brian, Nicol, and Ashley. The family received relatives and friends at Sinnickson's Moriches Funeral Home. A funeral service was held the following day at the funeral home. Interment was private.
