

Obituary: Robert E. Sneed,

Robert E. Sneed, who retired from the Plant Engineering Division on November 14, 1991, died on October 24, 2014. He was 79 years old.

The following obituary was published in The Mexia News, of Mexia, Texas:

The angelic hosts came for Robert E. Sneed, of Teague, on Friday, Oct. 24, 2014 at the Seton Medical Center in Austin, among loving family and devoted friends.

Viewing will be Friday, Nov. 7, from 10 a.m. until 7 p.m. at Moore's Angelic Funeral Home, 406 Monroe St. in Teague. Funeral services are Saturday, Nov. 8, at 11 a.m. at Moore's Angelic Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Dwayne Nemons officiating. Interment with military honors will follow at Antioch Cemetery in Teague.

Robert E. Sneed was born to the union of Birdia Weathers Coleman and C.B. Sneed on June 18, 1935 in Freestone County. Robert, known as "Dude" to his family and friends, attended schools in the Freestone County Public School District and graduated from Booker T. Washington

High School. He joined the U.S. Army Signal Corps, where he served faithfully until retiring with the rank of sergeant.

After relocating to New York, Robert held various positions at Brookhaven National Laboratory. Robert was united in holy matrimony to Kaye L. Neal in November 1979. She preceded him in death in May 2006. He retired in 1991 and moved to Texas two years later. He enjoyed ranching as well as playing cards and dominoes with his friends.

Preceding him in death were his parents; his brother, Bobby Walter Coleman; his sister, Georgia Coleman; and his wife, Kaye.

He leaves to mourn his passing three stepdaughters, Donna Lafayette and Pamelar James, both of Fort Smith, Ark., and Kimberly Vann of Chicago; two stepsons, Edgar James Jr. and wife Mary, of West Hempstead, N.Y. and Rico Brown of Fort Smith, Ark.; one grandson, Edgar James III and wife Kali, of King of Prussia, Penn.; two granddaughters, Kayla James of Tulsa, Okla. and Brittany Brown of Wichita, Kan.; one great-granddaughter, D'Saiya Armington of Tulsa, Okla.; one sister, Marshall Lynn Coleman of Teague; one sister-in-law, Wanda Cole of Fort Smith, Ark.; one aunt, Helen Redmond, of Dallas; and a host of other relatives and friends.
