"THE DARK TOWER" JUNE 13 AND 14

Why not jot down the dates now and plan on attending the delightfully different melodrama which the Theatre Group is staging this spring-- June 13 and 14 at the Main Theatre.

The title? Why, it's "The Dark Tower", by Alexander Woolcott and George S. Kaufman,

New faces, some of the prettiest at Brookhaven, enliven the cast, which will be announced later.

BRIDGE TOURNAMENT

The Bridge Club's first annual duplicate tournament for all employees will take place Tuesday, June 6, at 8 p.m. in the Research Staff Bldg.

Anyone wishing to enter a team of two people may call Bob Dvorak, Ext. 542.

DATE FOR "MAGIC BOW" CHANGED

The date of the Film Study Group's presentation of "Magic Bow" has been changed from Monday, May 29 to Monday, June 5, at 8:00 p.m.

CAMERA CLUB NEWS by Joyce Harris

Herbert Bornhorst (Meteorology) won 1st prize in the Photo Contest held by the BNL Camera Club on Wednesday night, May 10. The second prize winner was John Pasta (Physics). Harold Euler (AP & PM) took 3rd prize and honorable mention was given to the print submitted by Malcolm Johnson (Nuclear Reactor).

The next Camera Club meeting will be held May 24, at which time membership cards will be given out to those people who have not signed the cards.

The program for the evening will be a question and answer discussion to clear up the various problems club members have encountered trying to improve their pictures and techniques.

CONCERT GROUP TO PRESENT SONDRA BIANCA MAY 22

If you read last week's Bulletin Board, we're sure that you have saved the evening of Monday, May 22, 1950, so that you can attend the concert to be played by Sondra Bianca.

Her program will be as follows:

Chromatic Fantasie and Fuge - Bach

Pastorale Variee - Mozart

Sonata, - Op. 57 (Appassionata) - Beethoven

Nocturne C Sharp Minor Op. 27, No. 1 - Chopin

Waltz A Flat Major, Op. 27, No. 1 - Chopin

Fantasie F Minor, Op. 49 - Chopin

Necturne I Sharp Minor - Dello-Joio

Ondine - Ravel

La Campanella - Liszt

Following continues last week's story about an exceptional young lady:

Miss Bianca has recently begun a weekly program for France. The show is being prepared here in America through the facilities of Radio Diffusion Francaise. The program, transcribed in French, features interviews with outstanding musicians, who discuss French music with the charming young artist. These weekly informal broadcasts will touch upon France's greatest musicians and also the changes which have taken place in The Dance, The Symphony and French Opera, during the development of the French School of Music. Among those who will be interviewed are Virgil Thomp-
