GLEE CLUB

Rehearsals of the Glee Club will continue every Tuesday evening under the direction of Maestro Scuri. At the last meeting, in addition to rehearsing two semi-classical selections, the members spent some time vocalizing in order to improve their perception of tone and dynamics. At the next meeting Maestro Scuri expects to discuss suggestions for the purchase of new music to be sung at a concert sometime in the spring.

New members, particularly tenors, are always welcome. With a few new members each week, it is expected that the Glee Club will develop into a fine choral group.
