POPS CONCERT

"Music for the Theater" will be featured at the band's Pops Concert to be held on Tuesday evening, August 19th at 8:00 P.M. at the gym. Fresh from its recent triumphs the 300 piece* brass and wood-wind symphonic band will present music written for the stage along with several other selections, and its usual quota of surprises.

More details of the program will be presented in next week's bulletin board.

As is the custom at our concerts, tables and chairs will be available as will beer, soft drinks, etc. Admission is free. Plan to come and have a good time.

*(pieces of music, that is.)

DON JUAN IN HELL

The Brookhaven Theatre Group will present a program of great interest in the Research Staff Lounge on Tuesday night, August 12th, at 8:00 P.M. Monty Moses, Connie Moses, Everett Hafner and Simon Freed will appear in the wonderful scene, "Don Juan in Hell" from Shaw's play, "Man and Superman."

A selected panel of critics will discuss the phases of the presentation, which offers a unique opportunity to see and hear one of drama's most famous sequences.

All members and friends are invited to attend. Refreshments will be available.

"Foreign Correspondent" Next Film

With the screen firmly bolted down, the Film Study Group is ready to show its first-in-a-long-time "suspense packed drama of adventure." Directed by A. Hitchcock and featuring Joel McCrea, Herbert Marshall and Leo's Lorraine, this picture will make your girl hold your hand tighter than ever. So bring the girl - don't sit on your hands - and see "Foreign Correspondent" at the Lecture Hall at 8:30 p.m. Monday, August 18. Admission is fifty cents. Series memberships for $1.75 available for present series including Foreign Correspondent, Mr. Smith Goes to Washington, Treasure Island, I Know Where I'm Going, The Adventuress.
