The Juilliard String Quartet hardly needs an introduction at Brookhaven. Robert Mann (violin), Robert Koff (violin), Raphael Hillyer (viola), and Arthur Winograd (cello), the four musicians who make up the quartet, have twice before performed at the Laboratory, and each time their recitals were greeted with great enthusiasm. That the Juilliard group has included a Bartok quartet in its forthcoming program will be good news to those who enjoyed their exciting rendition of the third Bartok two years ago and to those familiar with the quartet's Bartok cycle on Columbia records which has won worldwide acclaim.
