HARVARD GLEE CLUB CONCERT

Have you bought your tickets yet? Have you told your family and friends that the Harvard Glee Club and Radcliffe Choral Society are going to sing here Saturday, March 28? If you haven't, now is the time to do it.

This week, news of this concert will appear in all local papers, and you may get requests for tickets from your friends and neighbors. Don't wait to be asked! Everyone who works at the Lab should consider themselves as ticket agents and spread the news of this unusual opportunity to all music lovers. Tickets are $1.25, and anyone may obtain tickets through Lab employees. Non-employees have to put their name and the name of the Lab employee through whom the ticket was bought on the ticket stub - then the ticket will serve as a pass for the night of the concert.

Those selling tickets are listed on back of page.

WHO NEEDS BOGART?

We've got Binnington-for the part of Commander Queeg, that is. Scooping the Hollywood and Broadway productions of Wouk's "The Caine Mutiny" by streamlined techniques, the Theatre Group is sponsoring a reading of the Court Martial scene with Jerry Fleeman, who wrote the adaptation, as narrator; Arvid Zuber and Don Fluke as the defense and prosecution lawyers; Bob Burgess as the defendant; Sid Medd and Murray Goldberg as Captains Breakstone and Blakeley; and a spectacular cast including Harry Landon, Hank Motz, John Antal, Winton Steinfield, and Al Weinstein. March 11, at 8:30 P.M. is the meeting, place to be announced on Cafeteria Bulletin Board. Admission is free. There will be refreshments.

BIRD WATCHERS

Considerable interest has been expressed in starting a Bird Watchers Group. Interested! Call Recreation Off., Ext. 391.
