THE ESSENCE OF ELDERBERRY WINE

First Installment

It is a dark and stormy night. Two little old ladies are living alone in an old Brooklyn mansion. Two sweet little old ladies, who wouldn't hurt a fly. The doorbell rings. In walks a sinister man, shadowed by his faithful sidekick. It is the nephew of these little old ladies, the kind who cuts worms in two - with his teeth.

What happens then? Who will give whom arsenic? Is a gentle smile and a bit of old lace more poisonous than a touch of cyanide? Come to the Theatre Group's spring production of "Arsenic and Old Lace" and find out. And scream...with laughter, of course.

The cast is as follows:

Abby Brewster	Virginia Sayre
The Rev. Dr. Harper	Gene Renkin
Teddy Brewster	Ed Sayre
Officer Brophy	David Wolfe
Officer Klein	Murrey Goldberg
Martha Brewster	Dorothy Fiala
Elaine Harper	Fran Keene
Mortimer Brewster	Jerry Hudis
Mr. Gibbs	Dan Tosteson
Jonathan Brewster	Don Fluke
Dr. Einstein	Gerhard Friedlander
Officer O'Hara	John Antal
Lieutenant Rooney.....	John Gorr
Mr. Witherspoon.....	Lynn Paeg

Monty Moses is directing the play. George Cox is designing the set, and Jigger Keene is in charge of its construction. The production manager is Peggy Steinfield. Anybody with a yen to pound nails, cart scenery, gather props and sew costumes, please phone Monty at Ext. 2163. All hands on deck are needed.
