Upton, New York

SEPTEMBER 28, 1953

B.E.R.A. 1953-54 CONCERT SERIES

Your Concert Committee has made arrangements for the fourth series of recitals by outstanding artists to be given at the Laboratory this season. The following concerts have been scheduled:

Wednesday, Oct. 14, 1953: Joseph Fuchs, Violin. A long time concert favorite of whom Virgil Thomson in the N.Y. Herald Tribune said, "Perfect. A dream of virtuosity and musicianship".

Tuesday, Nov. 24, 1953: Donald McKayle with his modern dance group.

Thursday, Jan. 7, 1954: The Juilliard Quartet, a perennial favorite of BNL audiences.

Thursday, Feb. 25, 1954: John Langstaff, Baritone. Mr. Langstaff's recital here in the summer of 1952 was enthusiastically received.

Wednesday, Mar. 24, 1954: Ernst and Lory Wallfisch, viola and piano. A young couple who have appeared with great success in recitals both in this country and in Europe.

Subscriptions to the series at $6.00 are available from the people on the list below. Single admissions to these concerts will be $1.75 each.

Your friends from outside the Laboratory are invited provided you sign their tickets.

PASSPORT TO PIMLICO

Produced by J. Arthur Rank

Lecture Hall October 5 8:30 P.M.

This is the first of the fall series of movies; it is the story of a small corner of England that discovered it really belonged to the Dukes of Burgundy and so tried to secede from the British Empire.

You will remember Margaret Rutherford - she played the spiritualist in "Blithe Spirit" as though the role she really wanted was Captain Bligh's. - well, she's in it, along with Stanley Hollaway.

The movie ran for months when it opened in New York about 3 years ago. We scouted around for opinions on it and got nothing but happy memories of this one.

"I laughed and laughed and laughed - and when it was over I was sorry it couldn't start all over again...I will definitely see it again!"

You may call and get the name of the person we're quoting!

Or ask at the box office when you come and see it.
