"LOUISIANA STORY"

July 26 at 8:30
Lecture Hall

This was the last documentary film Robert Flaherty made, and really his finest. As in all Flaherty movies, the story was derived from the locale; it only developed as he turned his cameras on the area.

"Louisiana Story" tells about the bayou country and the effect of an oil company moving its derricks in. It is beautifully photographed, played against a musical background by Virgil Thompson.

DON'T MISS IT.
