TONIGHT

THE QUIET MAN

AUGUST 22nd

Assembling his entire stock company including John Wayne, Maureen O'Hara, Victor McLoughlin, and Barry Fitzgerald, John Ford has directed an exciting and rewarding film. Photographing an Ireland as an emerald dream world of soft meadows and slow, clear brocks, of ancient trees and massive, stone hewn houses. The story concerns a prize fighter who returns to his native land after killing a man in the rang. He wants nothing more than to marry and settle down in the cottage in which he was born, but by buying the cottage, he has evoked the wrath of "Red" Danaher, a great brute of a man who wanted the property for himself, and Danaher's sister is the girl that Sean Thornton, "the quiet man", wants to marry. Thornton reluctantly settles their differences in a battle royal that covers miles and last for hours. A good fight, the picture says, makes everybody friends.

MIXED DOUBLES CHAMPS

Mary Holton and Walt Merkle won the BNL Mixed Doubles Championship for the second time by winning over Janet Geiselsoder and John Ruscica.
