TRYOUTS FOR SUMMER PLAYS
May 24

A summer production is brewing in the Theatre Group, and the prospects are pleasing. We think you will like the three one-act plays which have been chosen: "How He Lied to Her Husband", by G.B. Shaw, to be directed by Lee Grodzins; "Hello Out There" by Saroyan, directed by Lulu Anderson; and "The Romancers" by Rostand, directed by Jane Caspar.

The first tryout session will be held at 8:15 p.m., May 24th, in the Recreation Hall in the apartment area. We have all kinds of parts, depending on whether you are interested in being a young poetic type, an accused rapist, or a sedan chair carrier. The directors can lend you the scripts, if you're the type that likes to look ahead. But come in any case, even if it's just to watch the fun.

LAB WIVES

All Lab wives are invited to attend an informal discussion on Thursday, May 26, at 8:15 p.m. in the apartment area recreation building. Topic for the evening will be "How We Learn", led by Mrs. Eleanor Adair.
