THEATRE GROUP READING

November 13 - Tuesday - 8:30 PM

We seem to be on a murder jag, but here we go again. Aldous Huxley's "The Gioconda Smile" is the next informal reading. This one is a psychological study done with the sophisticated characters typical of Mr. H.

The Clifford Swartz's are sponsoring and give the following instructions for finding their home:

One mile east of Shoreham on North Country Road, (which runs parallel to 25A). Turn north on Valentine Rd. Take the first left, then the next right to the house on top of the hill. (Sounds like a good murder setting.) When you're thoroughly lost you can get further instructions by calling Shoreham 4-2309.

Hope to see you there.

CAMERA CLUB

The 18th annual Camera Club Colored Transparency Contest will be held on Wed. evening, Dec. 5. Start preparing your entries now in these classifications: scenic, portrait, and technical or bizarre.

THEATRE GROUP MEETING

THE THEATRE GROUP CHOOSES A PLAY, Mon.

Nov. 19, at 8:15 PM in the theatre. The advisory committee offers for your consideration (and is eager to defend) the following plays: Amphitryon 38 by Giraudoux; Ladies in Retirement by Percy and Denham; and the Gioconda Smile by A. Huxley.

L.R.A. TACKEY DANCE

I don't know what it is either so lets go and find out on Thurs., Nov. 15 at 8:30 P.M. in the Rec. Hall (Apt. Area). Refreshments served. Everyone is invited. New people come and meet the old.
