French Comedy - January 7th

Movie goers who saw "Mr. Hulot's Holiday" will have the opportunity of seeing the French comedian Jacques Tati in another film, "THE BIG DAY" to be shown on Mon. evening, January 7 at 8:30 P.M. in the LECTURE HALL.

Laughter is guaranteed in this charming story of what happened in a picturesque French village when the postman introduced his notion of American speed and efficiency. Jacques Tati, writer and comic, combining the styles of actor Buster Keaton, Director Rene Clair and the story telling of the Comedian Dell' Arte.

"Tati is funny from the word go...this brilliant comedian has restored something almost lost from the screen: the joke made to your eyes: you don't need a French vocabulary to enjoy "THE BIG DAY." -- THE LONDON TIMES....

"Charming and completely inimitable...it has the freshness of the bounding youth of movies...satiric touches typically and wonderfully French." -- THE N.Y. TIMES....
