SCOUT-WEEK LUNCH AT BNL

Wednesday, Feb. 8, 1956

12:00 to 1:00

Research Staff Lounge

As a result of stumbling across BNL employees doing all sorts of odd jobs at all sorts of Cub, Scout, and Explorer affairs, it was thought that it would be interesting to assemble together, at one place, at one time, all the men at Brookhaven who are interested in Scouting. Such an assemblage has been planned for Noon on the Wednesday of Boy Scout Week. An invitation is extended to all, including those active in Scouting, ex-Scouts and Scouters, fathers of Cubs, Scouts, or Explorers, or those with any interest whatever in Scouting, to attend this First Scouter's Lunch at BNL. The charge will be $1.50 for a full course luncheon.

There will be an interesting speaker and an opportunity for fellowship and the bull-sessions that are inevitable whenever any group of Scouters gets together. For those who are aware of (any way of) Scouting's methods of recruiting leadership, be assured that there is no "gimmick". No attempt will be made to sign anybody up to do anything. Just come out, be an honored guest, and enjoy yourself.
