BERA FILM STUDY GROUP TO SHOW SOMMARLEK (BRIEF INTERLUDE)

"Sommarlek" is an intriguing story of a beautiful ballet dancer and her summer romance in the Swedish countryside. The interlude ends tragically with the death of her lover. Marie, heartbroken and bitter, returns to her career as a prima ballerina with the Stockholm Royal Opera. In the following years, Marie turns her back on love although she is admired by a young reporter. A cancelled rehearsal affords her time to return to the summer retreat where she remembers back 13 years to the happy vacation. There she meets a spurned admirer who has found and read the diary of her lover.

On her return to Stockholm, she gives the diary to the reporter to read as a test of his love. The events described in the diary do not alter the reporter's feelings for Marie, and he comes backstage to her during a performance of "Swan Lake."

The cast includes Maj Britt-Nilsson, Birger Malmsten and Alf Kjellin.

In the Lecture Hall at 8:30 P.M. Monday, July 30. Admission is 50 cents.

A LETTER FROM A THEATRE GROUP FAN

Dear People,

My name is B. Atkinson Squirrel and I live in a tree next to the Theatre. Last night all the lights were on inside the Theatre, so I naturally tippy-toed in to see what the Theatre Group is up to now. And what I saw was so very good that I must tell you about it.

Rehersals were underway for the two plays which will be presented to you IN THE ROUND on Thursday and Friday, August 16 and 17 in the Gym. The first play is called The Apollo of Bellac, and from it you will learn the secret of how a pretty young girl can get most anything she wants. Now that in itself is enough of a reason for you to want to see it. But in addition, its wit and gaiety are delightful.

Sophocles' Antigone is the second play. It is referred to as the perfect drama, and its web of weakness and strength, the law of God and of man make it spellbinding.

I have already reserved my spot on a window sill of the Gym for both performances. (There'll be seats of course for you folks!) So I'll see you there!

B. Atkinson Squirrel
