L.R.A. SPRING CARD PARTY

Do you labor under the belief that Canasta is a new Latin Dance craze? Are you among the thousands that still think of Poker as a fireside implement?

Whether you are a complete stranger to the pasteboards or an expert at a card table, come on down to the Card Party on Tuesday night, May 14 at 7:30 p.m. at the Commandant's House. This is the first big social event of the spring season and seems like a good way to get the ball rolling for the dances and parties ahead.

Unless some entrepreneur buys out the card concession, it may be advisable to bring your own decks, or you may find yourself sitting at a bridge table and missing 52 vital pieces of equipment.

Come on down and get a good deal—remember the event—the SPRING CARD PARTY.
