Beginner's Tennis Tournament

The Ladies' Tennis Class has completed its instruction and is now halfway through its Elimination Tournament. The latest results have Dorry Lowe (defeating Ellen Eshaya) and Esther Sprenkle (defeating Birgit Högfeldt) entering the quarter-finals.

Mary Louise Buchanan, last year's singles champion, conducted the course for the beginners.

B.N.L. Tennis Tournament

The 1957 Tournament will begin this week (July 22). The schedule and rules have been set up and are now available. Copies of both can be picked up, by all entries, at the Recreation Office, Bldg. 461. A schedule of matches will be posted in both the Gymnasium and Swimming Pool.

Because of insufficient entries there will be no Ladies' singles or doubles. The tournament will include; Mens' Singles, Mens' Doubles and Mixed Doubles.

Theatre Group Reading

An informal reading will be held at the home of Harold and Ruth Schwarz on Thursday, July 25, at 8:15 p.m. Two plays will be read simultaneously (although, we are assured, not in the same room): John van Druten's farce "Bell, Book and Candle" and Robert Morley's drama "Edward, My Son". Everybody is welcome, both new and familiar faces; there will be parts to fit every taste and talent.

Directions: The address is 39 Robert St., Patchogue. Drive four blocks north from Main St. on Medford Ave., turn right on Robert St. It's a 2-story white stucco house on the left.

H.P. Students Win.

The Health Physics Department defeated the Health Physics students 9 - 8 after five exciting innings. Unfortunately, the game lasted seven innings. Final score Students 17 and H.P. Department 10.
