GOLF LESSONS

Due to the enthusiastic response received from the last golf class held here on site, it has been decided to start another five-week course in golfing fundamentals, providing enough people are interested. We have one of the top amateur golfers employed here at Brookhaven who is willing to conduct this class. So, how about all you "would be golfers" signing up and joining in the fun. Anyone interested please contact Grace Siemen on Ext. 2164 as soon as possible. We would like to start this class sometime around the middle of September. We will also try to avoid coinciding with any bowling nights.

VIRTUOUS ISLAND REVISITED

On Thursday night, patrons of the arts (Dramatists and Brewers) packed the Recreation Hall as the theater group presented in the round, a performance of Giraudoux's satirical comedy on the introduction of English morality to some of the best-looking natives we have seen around for some time. The performers and theater-goers then proceeded, amid roars of good fellowship, to consume ten cases of beer. Many thanks to Director Ralph Segel, Production Manager, Joe Vise, and all the many others, particularly a fine crew of summer students, who put on a rewarding evening in record time.

Those who enjoyed this evening as well as those who were unaware of it, should keep a sharp lookout in these columns for announcements of other theater group activities, in particular for the Fall production of "MY THREE ANGELS" for which the help of all interested is solicited.

CAMERA CLUB MEETING

The Camera Club will hold its first Fall meeting Monday, September 8 at Building 317, Recreation Hall, Apartment area. Time 7:45 p.m. There will be a color slide contest. Slides can be on any subject. Four slides maximum.

You can bring your slides meeting night, or send them by inter-office mail.

Send slides to Bill Tuttle, Physics, 55 Brookhaven; Ray Abbott, Accelerator Development, Ruther Drive; or Leonard Galanter, Nuclear Engineering, 29 Cornell.

Mr. Charles Bernholz of the Babylon and Metropolitan Camera Clubs, will judge the slides.
