BOWLING BITS

WEDNESDAY: PBC

Techs stayed on top by defeating Chemistry 3-1. Bob Dvorak rolled a 185, 201, 538 series; Ed Heins 182, 503 series and Dick Hildenbrand 191 for the Techs. Metalliks crushed the Polsecs 4-0 and dropped the Security team into 5th place. Stan Pollack led the Metalliks with a 201, 546 series, followed by Barry Galen's 204, 527 series; Carl Klamut's 202, 524 series and Walt Tremel's 201. Irregulars "squeaked by" Fiscal 3-1 as Baumfalk, Iarocci and Carde bowled good games. Only 3 pins was the difference in total wood. Loopers defeated Nuclides 2½ to 1½ as Stan Majeski converted a very difficult 6, 7, 9 and 10 pin split! S&M continued their attack and swept 4 points from Biology as Lou Adamec rolled a brilliant 192, 182, 197 for a 571 series, assisted by Phil Borzi's 190 and Steve Palermo's 188. Fire Dept. took the Scotches 3-1. Steve Takats rolled a 506 series and Tex rolled a 220. Andy Wolke rolled a 198, 536 series for the Scotches. Woodbutchers defeated Bismuth Kings 3-1. Hot Lab defeated Down Unders 3-1.

MONDAY: MAGGIO'S

Mixers 3 - Shamrocks 1

The Shamrocks were denied the pleasure of sewing up first place this week. The spoilers were the Mixers behind Capt. Joe Cardamones 523 series. J. Reilly had a 194 game and Al Tierney a 200 game with a 541 series.

Glass House Gang 3 - Reefers 1

Tom Holmquist's 203 (580), and Bob Gaffga's 190 (527) almost swept the Reefers. They lost one game by a narrow margin of two pins. High man for the Reefers was J. Scandizzo 521.

Hot Pots 3 - Fire Dept. 1

P. Peters had a 201 game and a 521 series for the Fire Dept., but the Hot Pots just kept rolling and took three points. J. Austin was top man for the Pots with a 472 series.

GROUP INSURANCE PLAN BOOKLET

A revised Group Insurance Plan Booklet will be mailed to your home this week. It contains the latest information on the Laboratory's insurance benefits available to you and your dependents. Please replace and destroy the present booklet which was included in your blue folder.

If you do not receive the revised booklet by Friday, March 27, please contact Personnel Services.

Standings	WON	LOST
1. Shamrocks	64	36
2. Mixers	53.5	45.5
3. Glass House	51.5	48.5
4. Reefers	50	50
5. Fire Dept.	46	54
6. Hot Pots	35	65

WEDNESDAY: MAGGIO'S

The second-place Ptuis managed to squeeze three points away from the ADD Techs. Art Beckwith for the Ptuis led with a 199, 524 series backed up by a 170 by R. Taylor and Dick German's 160. High men for the ADD Techs were Constant 168 and Verdino 167.

The Designers again had a close match as they took three points away from the Dirty Birds. Ed Sperry had 211, 557 series. Rocklein 198, 548 series, Cuccia 175 and A. Dick 171. For the losers P. Pion bowled 184, 515 series.

The Chain Gang took three away from Fiscal. M. Bull had 198, 538 series, Maile 225, 511 series. For the losers H. Bohn had 190, 515 series and Saletros 165.

The Phoubars had a bye.

LADY KEGLERS COLUMN

The undaunted Frisbees have once again come back to live up to their reputation by swamping Health Physics with a complete 3 game victory. Since Odds & Ends only took 2 from the Allthumbs, this brings their lead on 1st place down to only 1 game - AGAIN.

This week should prove very interesting, as the Frisbees and Odds & Ends bowl against each other. It's been noisy enough prior to this what with the Frisbees rooting on the Odds & Ends competition, but this week should cave the walls in. Medical took 2 from Biology, Chemistry took 2 from the Nightingales with the help of Mary Perrier's 170 game. Other high games: H. Kelly 182, 485 series; G. Siemen 168, 166; B. Oelkers 161; Phyl Mirabelli 167; C. Podalski 162.

—G. SIEMEN, Sec.
