

PRODELL WINS MEN'S SINGLES

"Miss BNL," Liz Honnett, presents trophies to Sergio Monaro (left) and Albert Prodell.

Albert Prodell was overpowering Thursday evening as he defeated Sergio Monaro in straight sets 6-2, 6-0. At the beginning of the match, the two finalists seemed bent on destroying each other as service was broken three times, but Mr. Monaro's backhand, usually one of his best strokes, deserted him and Mr. Prodell rushed the net repeatedly to completely upset Mr. Monaro's bid for the BNL championship.

As the match progressed, it became evident that Mr. Monaro could only hope to play a defensive game, and, for a time, this made things exciting. The final result was not long in coming, as Mr. Prodell drove a forehand smash by Mr. Monaro for match point.

Elizabeth Honnett, our Miss BNL, presented the winner and runner-up with their trophies, on behalf of BERA.

White's Q x P check leads to mate.

BROOKHAVEN, AFTER ALL

The National Leaguers let their neuroses get the better of them for the first three innings of the triangular all-star game, and dumped the Laboratory bid for the game flat on its face. The bare bones of the game follow. The Brookhaven League played the National League for the first three innings. The Brookhaveners amassed a disastrous twelve runs, while holding the helpless Nationals to a lonesome goose egg. The Laboratory League then took over for the exhausted Nationals the next three innings, and managed to hold the Brookhaven Boys to three runs. The ice was cracked in the Brookhaven defense just enough to permit the Laboratory men to score once. The anticlimatic final innings saw the recovered Nationals revive enough to score three runs, and then sink back to eye-twitching oblivion as the Laboratory men scored five runs. The final score: Brookhaven 15 - Laboratory 6 - National 3.

Otherwise it was a beautiful evening. The sun came out brightly after the rain to harass the right fielders, and four foaming kegs were on tap to refresh the galahads of the diamond. There were several spectators obviously more interested in the kegs than the game. The Oldham clan was there to provide a ready-made cheering section. George came through in fine fashion with two homers for the kiddies and also provided a little comic relief as he did a belly flopper on first base. Danny looked good as the pivot man on a snappy double play started by George Sabine; but his two bids for hits were foiled by fellow Masticite, Ed Scalsky. The only National All-star who wasn't paralyzed was Mike Guacci who banged out two doubles. Skelly Frei finished the season in fine fashion as he boomed a big one into the trees.

The final word of wisdom for the year, from me: Don't sell those overspecialized dinosaurs too short.

UPTON RIFLE-PISTOL CLUB

BERA FILM SERIES

HIROSHIMA, MON AMOUR

BERA is happy to begin its Fall series on Thursday night, September 6, 8:30 p.m. at the Lecture Hall.

"Hiroshima, Mon Amour" may well turn out to be a landmark in the history of the film form. Certainly, it establishes beyond any doubt, the potentialities of the film as an art, and as an instrument of insight into some of the major dilemmas that confront modern man.

Individual scenes have an impact almost excruciating, but words, pictures, and the musical score are fused so tightly in a single entity that no scene dominates nor could one foot of this film, one feels, be cut without taking away from the total effect. It is certainly one of the most important films of recent years." —N.Y. HERALD TRIBUNE

"The film has been acclaimed in France as 'a thousands films in one': a atomic horror movie, a pacifist tract, a Proustian exercise in recollection, a radioactive Romeo and Juliet. . ."

—TIME

In the coming weeks, BERA will present an excellent movie schedule which will include the following: "A Summer to Remember," "Gaslight Follies," Sophia Loren's "Two Women," Ingmar Bergman's "Lesson in Love," the famous film from India, "The World of Apu," Fellini's "The Young and the Passionate," "The Cousins," "The Rules of the Game," Bergman's "Virgin Spring."

BERA would like to urge all those who regularly attend the Laboratory movies to purchase series tickets. These tickets sell for $7.00 each and are valid for attendance at any ten performances for a period of two years. Series ticket holders are admitted free to all bonus films shown while the ticket is valid. The first bonus film will be "Gaslight Follies" on September 27, 1962.

Regular admission is $1.00 for adults and $0.50 for children. All series tickets are transferable. Buy your series tickets at the Lecture Hall on Movie Nights.
