SEPARATE TABLES' WHO'S WHO

George Cox — Mr. Fowler

The role of Mr Fowler would be a definite challenge to any actor. He is the epitome of times past — the pedantic schoolmaster, now retired and living on memories. For Mr. Fowler, we have the considerable talents of George Cox. You've seen him before . . . third bench left with the Illustration group. George has appeared in "Life and Half Life," "The Male Animal," and "Joan of Lorraine" at BNL and has designed the sets for such BNL shows as "Picnic" and "Arsenic and Old Lace." He has recently scored a success in "A Shot in the Dark" at Bellport, where he also appeared in "Sabrina Fair," "Bell, Book and Candle," and "Death of a Salesman." As you can see, the challenge of Mr. Fowler's dragon has been met; and George has done it again. Watch the results November 19, 20, 21.

SEPARATE TABLES' WHO'S WHO

Mary Affeldt - Miss Meacham

Mary is just about as new to BNL as you can get. As of this writing, she has been with the Medical Department for about two months. Originally from Minnesota, Mary comes to us from Miami University in Ohio (?). Happily, she is making her stage debut in this production. To complicate matters for you, this striking beauty has been transformed into the delightful, horserace-betting spinster, Miss Meacham. And the results? Perfection, from the quivering hand right down to the touch of madness in her eye. See her on November 19, 20, 21.

CHESS PROBLEM CONTEST

This week's problem, submitted by George Sprague of Philadelphia, has to be set up on the board. The first ten correct answers will receive a chess board with the compliments of BERA.

Send your solution to Martin Van Lith, 2 Center Street, before 5 p.m. on Monday, November 23.

UPTON RIFLE CLUB

Another notch has been added to the victorious guns of the Lab riflemen: it happened Monday night at Port Washington, with the crushing 707-573 defeat of the Naval Training Aids team. An especially good job was done by Al Lukas, 177; Pete Colombo, 171; Roy Domish, 179; and Tony Finocchio, 180 (high score first).

Remember, there is an open invitation to join the club. For all interested parties, male or female, there will be practice sessions on December 1 and December 8 from 7:00 to 10:30 p.m. in the Patchogue Armory. Rifles will be provided and you need not be a crack shot — just a crack pot! Seriously, there are plenty of openings and we hope to see you there.

If you would like to join in the activity, fill out the form below and mail it to the Recreation Office, 3 Center Street. If enough interest is indicated, an organization meeting will be held in the near future.

"Men's volleyball, men's softball, men's basketball — How about the ladies? We'd like to play too. Can't you find some room in the Gym for us?"

That's what the girls have been saying; and now, through a revision in the Gym schedule, we've found room on Tuesday nights at 7 p.m. The courts are yours, girls. Come out next Tuesday, November 24, for the first session to get some exercise and have some fun. If you'd like to play but can't make the first date or you would like some more information, call G.
