'65 World Series Film April 7 - 5:15 p.m. Gymnasium

All Laboratory Personnel are invited to the showing of a film on highlights from the 1965 World Series. Free beer, chips, and pretzels will be served before, during and after.

Those interested may stay after the movie and attend the scheduled Softball Rules Clinic. Seven high ranking officials of the American Softball Association will conduct this clinic. The purpose, functions and benefits of the A.S.A. will be explained and questions answered.

'Satchmo' Concert All Sold Out

A sellout crowd of an even 1000 will be on hand to greet Louis Armstrong and his All Stars on Saturday evening, April 2nd. The gala concert, which is scheduled to start at 8 p.m., will feature the "Ambassador" himself and popular vocalist, Jewel Brown.

Center Open for Armstrong Concert

The Brookhaven Center will be open on April 2 for the Louis Armstrong concert. A buffet dinner will be served from 6:00 p.m. The Tap Room will be open from 5:00 p.m. and again after the Concert. For reservations for the dinner call Extension 2453.

AUI Scholarship Winners Guests at Luncheon

Eight of the ten AUI Scholarship winners and their families were guests at a luncheon in their honor at the Brookhaven Center this week. Golf News

BGA membership renewals are rolling in and it looks like another big golf year. If you haven't yet joined (or renewed), application blanks are available at the Recreation Office.

Delivery of 1966 Membership Cards has been delayed, but the printer has promised them for this week. Ed Kuhn, the new pro at Middle Island, has agreed to honor '65 cards until April 1.

A full slate of tournaments has been scheduled for this summer and all members are urged to start early in establishing their handicaps. The system has been simplified so that names and scores can be recorded right at the M.I. Pro Shop, with no mailing of cards required.

BERA Film Series

The Golden Age of Comedy

Thurs., April 7th, 8:30 p.m.
in the Lecture Hall

Classic proof that the camera as a vehicle for humor reached its peak in the days of the silent comedies, about thirty years ago, is found in this side-splitting cavalcade of sight gags assembled by Producer Robert Youngson after looking at 2000 comedies made by the masters.

Hal Roach and Mack Sennett were back of the camera in these inspired productions of 1923-28 — and so were Frank Capra, Leo McCarey, and George Stevens. In the eight reels of collectors' items are knock-about scenes of slapstick with the Keystone Cops and Billy Bevan (creating the "battle with the oyster" gag); uninhibited sequences from Laurel and Hardy's "We Slip Up"; "The Second Hundred Years" and other zany masterworks; the early Will Rogers' spoofs of Tom Mix, Douglas Fairbanks, and movie censors; memorable miming by baby-faced Harry Langdon; Ben Turpin's take-offs of Erich von Stroheim and "The Merry Widow"; wonderful moments with Carole Lombard in a VISITORS - Wives of faculty members and women on the staff of the State University of New York at Stony Brook were entertained Tuesday morning by members of the Hospitality Committee here at the Brookhaven Center. Everyone concerned enjoyed the informal affair, meeting new friends and renewing acquaintanceships made at similar get-togethers last year here and at the Arboretum in Oyster Bay where SUNY women gave a tour for BNL women. Refreshments were served and short bus tours of the site were conducted.

Short: The Immigrant

One of Charlie Chaplin's most celebrated comedies and one of his saddest. This is a fine film which uses a comedy vehicle for social satire as two immigrants arrive in "the land of the free."

Rifle & Pistol Club Takes 17 Trophies

By Al Lukas

Seventeen trophies were distributed to eight members of the BNL Rifle team for their efforts in winning BNL's first Long Island Industrial Rifle League Championship. Capt. Pete Colombo's dedicated stalwarts received trophies from the L.I. Industrial League and the National Rifle Association. In only their second year of competitive shooting, the team took first place with a record of 15 wins and one loss.

Maintaining their pace in the 1966 season, they have compiled a record of nine wins and one loss - a tough 734-735 decision which went to Sperry. Hotly pursued by Grumman, IBM and Sperry, the BNL marksmen are holding first place.
