"THE MALE ANIMAL"

It will be total war between the sexes in just two weeks at BNL, when the Dramatic Group brings "The Male Animal" to the Theater for a mirthful two-night stand. A talented cast of bewildered males and determined females will fight to the finish on Thursday and Friday evenings, June 9 and 10, in their presentation of the riotous comedy by Elliott Nugent and James Thurber.

Principle actors and actresses in the play will include Andrew McReynolds, a physicist in civilian life; Dorothy Fiala, the sweetheart of AEC; John Binnington, librarian and star of "Life and Half-Life"; Robert Engelson, Health Physics; George Cox, artist extraordinary; Jean Snover, computeress; Stanley Kramer, technician; and James Atherton, the pile builder. Adele Stemmler, Annie May Gilbert, Lila Snow, Saul Harris and Donald Howard are also featured.

Tickets will be on sale next week in the Administration Building (Marge Crane), Research Library, and the Administration Annex (Louise Ropp).

YOUR LAST CHANCE!

The Gigantic Jingle Contest is closing rapidly. Only a few more days for you to do as well as Philmore Phreeble, who, just for fun, jumped from the Meteorological Tower with his umbrella and received a Golden Harp free. You can do better than Philmore--just send in your jingles and live to talk about them. Last chance June 1st. Try this one for size:

A snoop tricked a dupe at Argonne

Using learned atomic jargon.

The dupe gave him a file With the poop on the pile..

Now the snoop, dupe and poop all are gone!

WRITE YOUR OWN

Berra, catcher for the New York Yankees, was struck on the head by a pitched ball recently and the N. Y. Herald Tribune, in reporting the incident, stated, "Berra was taken to the hospital where his head was x-rayed, but the pictures showed nothing." Catchers do lose their heads sometimes!

New Houses Under Construction - $5,250 and Up

On the south side of the street between Union Avenue and Beachfern Road, Center Moriches, there are five houses, two of which have been completed. These have been built by Peter Steenland of West Sayville, and the agent is August Stout, Jr. of Center Moriches.

They are two-bedroom houses in which the following is offered: complete plumbing, 3-wire electrical system and fixtures, automatic oil heat with outside 275-gallon tank, kitchen cabinet sink with kitchen cabinet and complete bathroom fixtures. There is asphalt tile in the kitchen and bath. Interior and exterior decorations are included. The plots of ground are large, and the area is wooded. Water is by individual well and each house is equipped with a cesspool.

The cheapest house, at $5,250, can be purchased for $750 down, leaving a first mortgage of $4,500. This is an F.H.A. mortgage for fifteen years at 4-1/2%. The monthly carrying charges on this mortgage for interest and amortization are stated by the builder to be $36.17 per month, including F.H.A. insurance. A G.I. mortgage can be arranged for very little cash. The builders are prepared to make second mortgages to $300, which would leave a down payment of $450.

For further information call the agent at Center Moriches 81 or the Housing Office on Ext. 2218.
