HAGE LEADS BIG FISH CONTEST

Henry Hage, Machine Shops, with his catch of a bluefish weighing 4 lbs. 2 oz. is leading the contest for the biggest fish regardless caught, of kind, during the year. The will end contest December 31st and all BNL Isaac Waltons are urged to register some of the big fish that they tell about (How about that fluke, Tony?)

The September contest for weak fish was a blank. Not a fish was entered. Fishing Club officials think that perhaps after the hot, hot summer, both the fish and the fishermen were weak.

The October contest fish is striped bass and Charles Larson says "Register your fish, no matter which way the stripes run."

The usual rules apply to this contest, fish may be weighed at any official weighing station on blanks that may be obtained from Charles Larson, Ext. 2376, and when attested to by the weighing official, the blanks should be forwarded to Frank Jelley, Ext. 2182.

FLYING CLUB SEEKS MEMBERS

The BNL Flying Club previously announced, has been formed. Interested pilots or beginners desiring to join should call Jerry Selvin, Ext. 2210.

GRÁVITY AMENDED

(from Newsweek)

The pure flame of scientific curiosity burned in the breast of Benson Furdue, a student at the University of British Columbia. He, like many others, had observed that buttered toast, when dropped, more often than not defied the law of probability by landing butter-side down. Could this perverse tendency be demonstrated scientifically? To find the answer, he rigged up a simple apparatus in his Vancouver home. He suspended a vertical clamp 4 feet above the floor and equipped it with a mechanical trip lever to release the toast.

Flacing a piece of plyunderneath wood the clamp, he proceeded to drop the toast 175 times. The results were inconclusive. The toast landed butter-side down only 91 times (52 per cent). When, however, he substituted for the plywood a piece of worn-out carpet, the butter-side-down incidence increased sharply to 71.4 per cent. And when a valuable Fersian rug was placed under the clamp, he insisted the toast landed butter-side down 156 times in 175 trials (89.1 per cent of the times).

To his figures Purdue applied rigorous inductive reasoning and last week propounded the following amendment to the law of gravity: "When an object falls, it tends to fall in such a manner as to cause the most damage."

UMPIRE SENDS

SELF TO SHOWERS

Marshall R. Shaw, BNL Soft Ball League demon umpire got through the season without bumps or bruises and little damage to his dignity, if any. Fatc finally caught up with him last week as he was operating a lift truck on one of the lower floors of the Pile building. Bob backed the truck into the chain that operates a shower bath and literally "sent himself to the showers." Players have told Bob he was all wet several times this season, maybe he was trying to make honest men of them.

"JESSE JAMES WAS MY NEIGHBCR" by Homer Croy

The criminal waste of good human material which often results when youth is subjected to or exposed to injustice and cruelty is clearly outlined in Homer Croy's book, "Jesse James Was My Neighbor". When Jesse was 16 Kansas and Missouri were at each others throats with bands of guerillas daily riding across the state borders. murdering and looting. Jesse and his stepfather were both victims of one of the raids and the experience made an indelible impression on the youth. Soon after that episode the war between north and south began and Jesse, denied entry into the armed forces because of his youth, joined a guerilla band that stopped at nothing to wina victory.

After the war, Jesse and his brother Frank organized the James Boys gang and from then until he was killed Jesse led the life of a hunted man.

Homer Croy has compiled the facts of the James Boys experiences and written them in a flowing style. He paints a sympathetic picture of Jesse, although he admits that at times Jesse was a cold blooded killer, The reader will probably be inclined to agree with Croy if he carefully reads about the youthful expercolored iences that Jesse's whole life.

This book is as exciting as a novel and will explain to many the attitude of the midwestern residents to-

PHUBARS (GRAFHIC ARTS and I. & F.) CELEBRATE By a participant

On Friday, October 7, approximately fifty people gathered in Building T-181 to help the Fhubars celebrate their capture of second place in BNL's Softball League.

At 8:30 p.m., the beer was tapped by Harry Maile, who claims to be a professional tapper and Joe Lucas, an amateur. Between the two of them they soaked up more beer in the first few minutes than most people did all evening. After the beer was tapped Joe sadly began seeking a dry shirt. Harry at least knew when to duck.

Fifteen tables were set up surrounding the place which had been cleared for dancing and a few impromptu acts. At 10:30 the entertainment got under way, with Dennis Puleston presenting the members of the team with 'their söft ball trophies. The final presentation was made to the "Arch Phubar of the Year" who turned out to

WHEN FHUBARS CELEBRATE be Alf Christoffersen. A number of acts were presented by W. Higinbotham, Marjorie Muller, D Fuleston, R. McKee, L. Stoughton, L. O'Laughlin, P. Simak, H. Wright, F. Bennett, and A. Laskey,

After the performance everyone tied into the cold cuts, potato salad and macaroni salad set up by Irene Kozak

When the record player was turned on, people danced. Between records W. Higinbotham, F. Bennett, Alf Christoffersen, L. O'Laughlin beat out a few of the old standard tunes, employing accordian, drums, violin, and saxaphone, and people danced some more.

The evening broke up at 1:30 a.m. with most people satisfied and semiconscious. However, one group finished off the party at P. Simak's home in Manorville. If this is the kind of a party which is thrown for a second place team, imagine the brawl which may have ensued had the Mighty Phubars finished first.

FACT N' FISSION

There was a broken fence between Heaven and Hell. The devil sent a note to the angels, "Have taken legal advise. The repair is your responsibility." Heaven replied. "Cannot get legal advice. Will repair fence."
