LISTEN-TO-MUSIC JUNE 12

The Listen-to-Music Group will hold a regular meeting Monday night, June 12, at 8:00 p.m. in the Research Staff Lounge. The program for the occasion is the one originally scheduled for May 29; it has been arranged and will be presented by David Balber, who promises that a most enjoyable evening's entertainment is in store for us. All staff members are cordially invited to attend.

It should be brought to the attention of all those interested in this Group, that because of the formal expiration of term of the present officers on June 1, discussion of the current low state of the Group and of action in this regard (possible discon-

"THE DARK TOWER" READY TO GO TOMORROW AND WEDNESDAY

With the performance at Pilgrim State Hospital a complete success and with the final rehearsal tonight, everything is in readiness for nights at the Theatre tomorrow and Wednesday.

Miss Ruth Edwards, assistant recreational instructor, forwarded Ellen Reidy the following review of the out-of-town performance:

"Your Group gave one of the best shows in years. Though working on a strange stage with a minimum of scenery your performance was convincing and showed the results of intensive rehearsing. Needless to say, the audience was crazy about it. Please bring your next play down for us to see."

So the cast is ready, the stage is set, the lights are up and the curtain goes back at 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday and Wednesday.
