LAUGH RIOT IS READY

Get your tickets now for "You Can't Take It With You." The cast and crew are ready for May 24 and May 25. They fervently hope the potential audience is ready too. The larger the crowd, the heartier the laughs and the more fun for everybody.

So get up your theatre parties and come to be royally entertained. The only guarantee the B.E.R.A. Players can offer is to do their best -- and up to this point -- that seems to be very good. You couldn't get a better time for fifty cents anywhere.

If you haven't yet encountered a ticket distributor, tickets may be obtained from Agnes Simms at the reception desk of T460 or from the Recreation Office. Almost all the larger departments have a ticket distributor. Invite your friends to share an evening of hilarious entertainment.

The B.E.R.A. Players would like to have a small audience at the final dress rehearsal Wednesday, May 23 at 8:30 so the invitation is repeated: anyone in the Lab who finds it impossible to attend the regular performances is welcome if he or she can make it. That is all for now -- See you Thursday or Friday at 8:30 p.m.
