NEW MUSIC STRING QUARTET -- Aug. 26, 1952

The second concert of the BERA summer concert series will be given Tuesday, August 26, 1952 in the Research Staff Lounge by the New Music String Quartet. (Broadus Erle and Mathew Raimondi, violins; Walter Trampler, viola; and Claus Adam, cello.) Their program is as follows:

Quartet in G op. 18 No. 2	Beethoven
Quartet No. 2 op. 43 (1948)	Wallingford Riegger
Quartet in F op. 41, No. 2	Schumann

The New Music String Quartet is a group of four young musicians, in the few years of its existence, which has risen "to the top brackets of their field" and "need defer to none" to quote the critics. They have been acclaimed at concerts and music festivals in all parts of United States.

Tickets at $1.50 are available from the following:

PHOUBARS FWINF

Last Thursday night the Phoubars defeated the Hot Lab team in a rough and tumble brawl ending with a score 12-11. The Phoubars being the victors for the first time this season, and thus spoiling their unbroken record. (They don't count the two forfeits.) Next year they expect to win at least two games.
