FILM STUDY SERIES CLOSES WITH "THE SOUTHERNER"

The last film in the current series will be the finest American film of the French director of Grand Illusion and The River -- Jean Renoir.

This United Artists picture with Zachary Scott and Betty Field is the story of a family of share-croppers driven by their desire to have a farm of their own. Renting a piece of land with a shack on it, they clear the land, plant cotton and have a crop on the way when a hurricane strikes and destroys everything except their determination to continue the struggle for existence.

"Poetry and realism are magnificently blended by Jean Renoir and as magnificently realized in the superb photography and setting" - National Board of Review.

January 19 at the Lecture Hall, 8:30 p.m. Single admission 50 cents.

CAMERA CLUB

The entries in the Camera Club Print Contest selected by the judges for blue ribbons were submitted by:

Harold Nishi - 1st prize
Lionel Goldring - 2nd prize
Harold Nishi - 3rd prize

All prints were on display in the cafeteria during the first week in Dec.

At the next meeting of the Camera Club, Dr. Raymond Davis of the Chemistry Department will speak on Stereophotography. All members should be present to hear Dr. Davis and to cast their ballots in the election of officers for 1953. Also, the Transparency Contest to be held in February will be discussed.

The Camera Club meetings are open to anyone interested in any phase of photography. Come and join us in the Recreation Hall on Wednesday, January 14 at 8:30 p.m.

THE TREES OF LONG ISLAND

A copy of the booklet, "The Trees of Long Island" may be seen at the Recreation Office. It contains a short account of their history, distribution, utilization and significance in the development of the region. It also lists the "big trees" of the Island. If enough people are interested, B.E.R.A. may be able to purchase copies at a reduced price.
