LADIES AND GENTS

COME ONE AND COME ALL

TO THE BROOKHAVEN CARNIVAL BALL

On Friday night, June 26th from 9-1 - dancing to the music of Walt Milian and his Carnival players in an atmosphere of the big top, bouncing balloons and merry-go-rounds. All for only $1.00 per person. You can't afford to miss this - the greatest evening at Brookhaven. Ice and water free. Beer, coke, set-ups (if you choose to bring your own fire-water) and other refreshments for a nominal fee. It's semi-formal. Ladies - here's your chance to wear that gown you have hidden away - be it cocktail or formal.

The social committee of L.R.A. working with the B.E.R.A. Board is out to make the Annual BERA spring dance, the greatest event since the cow jumped over the moon. So, get your dancing shoes ready - we'll expect to see you at the Brookhaven Carnival Ball. Tickets will go on sale June 17th. Watch this Bulletin Board for names of the persons selling tickets.

TENNIS EXHIBITION AND CLINIC

On Friday, June 26, 1953 on the Lab tennis courts, through the courtesy of A.G. Spalding Co., MERCER BEASLEY, famous coach, and MIKE BLANCHARD, ranked No. 1 in New England Veterans Doubles, will play an exhibition match with two of our players at 12:00 noon, followed by a tennis clinic for all those who are interested. If you would like to participate in the clinic, call the Recreation Office, Ext. 391. They will also conduct a clinic for children of employees later in the afternoon if there is enough interest in such a session.
