"STONEFLOWER" AT LOCAL CINEMA

The Film Study Group invites you to see on July 20 in the Lecture Hall, "Stoneflower", an enchanting fairy tale in color of a Princess captured by the Mountain King and rescued by a young stone carver. This Russian film has won world-wide praise and a first prize at the Cannes Film Festival for its brilliant color photography, much of which takes place in a fairyland cave of jewels.

Series tickets available at $1.75. Individual tickets fifty cents including tax. Lecture Hall at 8:30 P.M. on July 20 - "Stoneflower".

L.R.A. ANNOUNCES

On Thursday evening, July 23 at 8 PM there will be another beer party and dance at the Commandants' House, 14 Bell Avenue. All dormitory residents and single off-site personnel are cordially invited. Come and join us for an evening of fun and relaxation.

THEATRE GROUP Elects New Officers

The Theatre Group met on July 8th and elected the following officers for 1953-54:

President: Donald Fluke
Vice President and Treasurer: Margaret Dutcher
Secretary: Virginia Sayre
Chairman, Advisory Committee: Montrose Moses
Chairman, Program Committee: Edward Sayre
Chairman, Theatre Committee: Byron Keene

The program for the evening was a final (you have the word of the president of the United States) post-mortem and evaluation of "Arsenic and Old Lace". Excellent presentations were made of different aspects of the production--from the standpoint of the director, one of the actors, the production manager, the stage manager, props and costumes directors, and tickets sales manager.
