JUILLIARD STRING QUARTET

Thursday - January 7, 1954

CLASSIFIED ADSFOR SALE

An old favorite, the Juilliard String Quartet, will play a return engagement at ENL Thursday, January 7th, in the Research Staff Lounge.

The Juilliard Quartet is made up of four musicians (Robert Mann and Robert Koff, violins; Raphael Hillyer, viola; Arthur Winograd, cello) who are members of the faculty of the Juilliard School of music. They have established themselves as among the foremost interpreters of the chamber music literature. Their Columbia recordings of quartets by Bartok, Ravel, and others have been universally acclaimed. Their Brookhaven program includes:

Quartet in D major, op. 76, #5 (Haydn)

Quartet No. 1 (Piston)

Quartet in C sharp minor, op. 131 (Beethoven.)

This concert will be the fourth in the 1953-54 BERA concert series. Non-subscribers may buy tickets at the door for $1.75. Please come and bring your friends to an outstanding concert.

Will begin sharply at 8:30 p.m.
