ITALIAN COMEDY NEXT FEATURE FILM

Though written by Cesare Zavattini (responsible for Shoe Shine and Bicycle Thief), this film moves out of the post-war "neo-realist" tradition of tragedy among the lower classes into comedy among the more prosperous. Father's Dilemma is a study of an ambitious father's confusion as preparations are made for his daughter's First Communion. Gathered together are a host of characters wonderful in themselves and more than wonderful in their ability to heighten the pompous father's futility. Altogether a fascinating glimpse at a gay phase of big city life in Italy today.

With one of Italy's foremost comedians - Aldo Fabrizi and Gaby ("Curves") Morlay. AWARD: First Prize, Venice International Film Festival.

See it at the Lecture Hall at 8:30 p.m. on Monday, May 2. Admission 50 cents.
