TRIO DI BOLZANO

Friday, February 3, 1956, 8:30 PM

Research Staff Lounge

(Note change from originally scheduled date)

The members of the Trio di Bolzano are Nunzio Montanari, pianist, Giannino Carpi, violinist, and Sante Amadori, cellist. Making their debut in 1945 the Trio was immediately acclaimed for its beauty of tone, brilliant technique and superb artistry. Since their debut they have received international recognition and have been acclaimed by Europe's top artists as one of the finest chamber music ensembles of the continent.

The Trio will play the following program:

Trio in D major, Op. 70, No. 1 Beethoven
Trio in G major, K. 564 Mozart
Trio in C major, Op. 87..... Brahms

Single admission tickets will be sold at the door for $1.75 (adults) and $0.75 (students).

CAMARA CLUB

The next meeting of the Camara Club will be held in the Research Staff Lounge on Wed., Jan. 25th, at 8:30 PM. The business part of the meeting will be devoted to the election of officers for the next year. This will be followed by an Eastman Kodak prepared program consisting of the presentation of a set of prize salon prints, together with a critical discussion of each print and a description by the photographer of how it was made. Everybody welcome.

TELESCOPE MAKERS OF BROOKHAVEN

Next meeting: Tuesday, Jan. 24, 5 PM.
Place: Rm. 6, 2nd floor, Admin. Bldg.

The 6-inch telescope is still here for inspection and for viewing, if Long Island weather will permit. It will be available to us for some time to come. The meeting will be devoted to decisions on specific materials each member wants to buy and plans for working setups. Everyone interested in the project, even in looking over the shoulders of those who are a little more interested, is invited to attend.
