BERA FILM STUDY GROUP PRESENTS "The Happiest Days of Your Life"

Nothing, not even James Thurber's "The War between Men and Women," can match the devastation which results when a boys' school, Nutbourne College, whose head master is Alastair Sim, through a beaurocratic blunder is billeted with a girls' school, St. Swithin's, whose headmistress is Margaret Rutherford. Joyce Grenfell is at her best as Miss Gossage, the sports mistress.

Shown in the Lecture Hall, Brookhaven Avenue, at 8:30 P.M., Monday, July 2. Admission 50 cents.

THEATRE GROUP READING

There will be a reading of "Thieve's Carnival" by Anouilh on Monday Evening, July 9 at the home of Marge & Russ Dreyfus. The Dreyfus family live on S. Country Rd. in East Patchogue. Second house east of Roe Ave. Everyone invited.

The Directors of the two plays being presented this August, Virginia Sayre & Harold Schwarz are eager to have names of those interested in participating in any way.
