THE APOLLO OF BELLAC - ANTIGONE

The air is full of Convention current. Slates are being formed in conventional halls across the Nation and the Theatre Group too has its candidates. They are The Apollo of Bellac and his running mate, Antigone. Our party feels confident that you will find no other candidates as well qualified to provide you with a wonderful evening's entertainment.

The Apollo is a French comedy wherein the heroine learns the magical words to success in dealing with men. Antigone is a woman who is living under the shadow of the errors of her father Oedipus. Her fascinating story evolves around her struggle to uphold Moral Law against insurmountable odds.

Performances of the two one-act plays will be given on Thursday and Friday of this week, August 16 and 17 at 8:30 P.M. in the Gymnasium. Seating capacity is limited since the plays are performed In The Round. Therefore to be sure of a seat, you should obtain your tickets SOON.

Tickets (price 50¢) are on sale in the Cafeteria at lunch hour and are also being sold by: Gene Raka (ADD), Harriet Hayes (Directors), Peg Bartsch (Personnel), Lloyd Schairer (Biology), Tom Prach (Hot Lab), John Antal (Physics), Don Miller (Chemistry), Naomi Prach (Health Physics), John Gorr (Reactor), Edwin Rogers (Cosmotron), Rose Marie Reichold (Medical), Mary Jean Scott (Cyclotron), Rita Straub (Medical), Peggy Carter (Photo Dup), Betty Mullen (Directors), Pat Hughes (Metallurgy), and the Recreation Office.

TWO DOCUMENTARY FILMS TO BE SHOWN AUGUST 13.

FISH MARKET - Photographed in New York's Fulton Fish Market, this pictorially fascinating and socially exciting documentary is a striking example of the poetry of reality. Sounds and dialects recorded in the market area make it one of the rare instances of true sound. Written and directed by Leroy Stone. Photographed and edited by Michael Fischer. Narrated by Alexander Scourby.

LIFE IN THE ARTIC - Photographed in color in the U.S.S.R., this film depicts life on land, under the ice, and in the air through the Artic seasons. On land, bears, seals and foxes; under the ice, weird and beautiful variety of marine creatures, and in the air, the combined forces of a colony of seabirds ward off an attacking eagle.

In the Lecture Hall, Monday, August 13 at 8:30 P.M. Admission 50¢.
