SUMMER COMING ATTRACTIONS

Presented by The Film Study Group of B.E.R.A.

Beginning July 8 films will be shown every Monday evening in the Lecture Hall at 8:30 P.M. Admission will be 50 cents.

July 8

City Without Wheels

A poetic and wordless evocation of Venice, very unlike the ordinary travelogues. Accompanied by an exciting sound track recorded on location.

Mr. Hulot's Holiday

Set in a seaside resort, its series of intimate episodes almost entirely visual in their humor, need no sub-titles; the satire is the broadest expression of the well-meaning, bumbling and hilarious Jacques Tati.

July 15

Coming Shortly

The hilarious satire on movie trailers advertises an imaginary feature film, "Mame," the story of a poor girl (richly endowed by nature) who climbed the ladder of fame sin by sin.

Gate of Hell

The magnificent Japanese film in color which was awarded the Grand Prize Cannes International Film Festival and the Academy Award for the Best Foreign Picture.

July 22

Geography of the Body

A daring analogical pilgrimage evokes the terrors and splendors of the human body as the undiscovered, mysterious continent. Commentary by the distinguished British poet George Baker.

The Sheep Has 5 Legs

The incomparable Fernandel in a delightful tour-de-force, playing half a dozen roles in a set of six stories about an old French vintner and his quintuplet sons who are assembled from the four corners of the earth for a family reunion.

July 29

Weegee's New York

Weegee, press photographer and master of the candid camera, creates a vivid impression of the life and the tempo of the metropolis.

One Summer of Happiness

A lyrical drama of young love, sensitively made and beautifully photographed in the Swedish countryside and at the old swimming hole. Grand Prize, Cannes Film Festival, 1952.
