BIG SPLASH!

Everybody come to the Swimming Pool party on Thursday, October 24 at 7 p.m. Admission will be free to the informal dance after the swim. There will be plenty of dancing afterwards to the hottest records in BNL; Lindys, Polkas, Waltzes, Fox Trots, Rumbas, Tangos, Cha Chas and Charlestons. Lots of refreshments too including beer, cokes, hot coffee and doughnuts, chips and pretzels.

CHESS

George Koltanowski, the world's blindfold chess champion, is available for another lecture and demonstration at BNL. After an interesting and amusing lecture on chess he plays all comers simultaneously, then plays against two of the best players without seeing the board.

All players, regardless of chess ability, are invited to participate.

As an added feature this year, Koltanowski will give an official chess rating to all who play.

A tentative date of Wednesday, November 6, has been set. The fee will be about $1.50 per board played, 50 cents for spectators. (With a large turnout the fee may be reduced.) Please indicate your interest by calling P. Rathvon, Ext. 2371.

KEGLER'S KICKOFF

The first ball in BNL League competition will be thrown this week as the 1957-58 bowling season gets rolling. Thirty-two mens' teams will compete, in four leagues, for the BNL Championship. In the Ladies Division we have an eight-team league which begins its schedule this Tuesday night.

Trophies will be awarded to League Champions and runners-up. Awards will also be given for high average, high series and high game. All schedules and regulations will be posted at the alleys.
