PHOTO CLINIC Membership Drive for Novices and Experts

The monthly meeting of the Camera Club will be held on Tuesday, October 29 in the Research Staff Lounge at 8 p.m. The program will consist of a print and color slide clinic so bring some of your shots along (good or bad). Additional officers will be elected and there should be a lively discussion of plans for the future activities of the club during the winter season.

We know a lot of you have cameras and are interested in an active club, so come on out to this meeting, whether you know anything about photography or not.

PHOUBAR FELATIS!

It is rumored that the "Phoubars is dead". To anyone that can stand having this disproved the following is offered. All present, past, future, and friends of, Phoubars are planning to attend a victory dance on Nov. 1, 1957 at Gym from 8:00 p.m. until?

How to get tickets? Easy! Just see any present, past or future PHOUBAR or friend. They will tell you how with pleasure.

Incidentally, tickets are $1.50 per brave soul for live music, setups, and chipsandpretzels. BYOB.

SET SHOTS

The first workout for basketball enthusiasts will begin on Tuesday, October 22, in the gymnasium at 7:00 p.m. Everyone, beginner or pro, is invited to attend. Scrimmage games will be played every week. If there is enough interest and talent, it is probable a team will be formed to play the neighboring villages. For further details call George Sabine, Ext. 391.

GYMNASIUM ACTIVITIES

The gymnasium will be open for activity starting October 21 and the following schedule will be in effect.

Tues. to 7:00 p.m. - Indoor Tennis (By reservation.) 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. - Basketball.

Wed. 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. - Fencing - Badminton. 8:30 to 10:00 p.m. - Arthur Murray Dance Class.

Thurs. 5:00 to 9:00 - Volleyball, Badminton, Basketball.

Showers, lockers and towels are available. Adjoining the gymnasium is a fully equipped table tennis room which is open every evening.

Plan your winter recreation program now, by buying a season ticket to the swimming pool and using the gymnasium.

CHESS

Another reminder that George Koltanowski, world's blindfold chess champion, will be here Thursday, October 31. All interested in playing against a chess master, or in just watching (not kibitzing) please indicate your interest by calling P. Rathvon, Ext. 2371.

This will not be a bunch of dull chess games, but a lively and entertaining evening.

Chess Problem: Black has 2 pieces, K on QB1, N on Q1; white has 4 pieces, P on QB7, R on KN7, K on Q5 and B on KB1. White to play and mate in two moves.

The answer to last week's problem is alleged to be 1.Q-N8, but we'll have to ask Koltanowski how to beat 1...PxN.

DANCERS

This Wednesday is the night! The first of 10 lessons by Arthur Murray dance instructors will be given at 8:30 p.m. in the gymnasium. The session will last approximately one hour. However, music and refreshments will be available for those who wish to remain after class.

FROM PICCOLO TO BASSOON

An audience of 200 children and their parents enjoyed the special concert given by the New Art Wind Quintet on Saturday morning. The members of the Quintet described the characteristics of their instruments and demonstrated them with ingenuity and humor. The audience participated with both questions and answers from the children. Musical selections ranged from Bach to Hindemith and Gerschwin.

BOWLERS WANTED

It is not too late to bowl in the BNL Bowling League! Several teams still have vacancies. Call the Recreation Office, Ext. 391.

NOVEL! INGENIOUS! TERRIFIC!

Everyone . . . and we mean everyone . . . Come on down to the ol' swimmin' hole. There'll be games and tricks, and lots of fun, Having a darned good time is our goal. And to round out the evenin' To make it complete There'll be a dance in the gym Following the swimming meet. Informal of course, any old clothes'll do, And naturally - there'll be refreshments too!! The date is Thurs., October 24, at 7 p.m.
