GIRLS SOFTBALL LEAGUE CRASH HIGHLIGHTS THIRD GAME

The "Goofers" 19 runs topped the sporadically inspired "What-meworries?" 12 last Wednesday. Two of the outstanding players, Elaine Daniels and Dottie Driscoll, somewhat damaged their professional stature when they collided dustily on 2nd base. This was one of the better actions of the game, although these two, among others, contributed some sparkling plays during the course of the evening.

The lack of an umpire prompted some quickly settled rhubarbs, and a lack of catchers caused some odd plays at home plate. New recruits will be welcomed with open arms.

No standings will be posted due to the interchangeable membership of the teams.

JONES BEACH MARINE THEATRE

Many of our employees will spend a cooling evening under the stars this summer watching the outdoor musical spectacular, "SONG OF NORWAY", unfold before them at the Jones Beach Marine Theater.

All who wish to attend this Broadway-tested hit may obtain tickets in advance at specially reduced rates. Discount coupons have been sent to all departments and are available at the Recreation Office.

"SONG OF NORWAY" offers an all-star cast, a skating ballet performed on a real iceberg, a water ballet and a 75 foot Viking ship brought from Norway to Jones Beach especially for this production. Fireworks conclude each performance.

The show opens June 20 and runs through September 1.

BNL SOFTBALL

Tuesday: Poor pitching on the part of the Cosmotrons let Nuclear Engineering tee off in the first inning with 6 runs. In the following innings Cosmotron batted out two home runs and gained 7 runs, but NE kept ahead all the way. Final score 9 to 7.

Wednesday: The Phoubars are falling slowly but inexorably by the wayside. This day it was their turn to face Bio's whiz kids (more especially their speed ball pitching) and not to be different the Phoubars dropped the game 4 to 2. It looks definite now that Biology is the team to beat this year. However Metallurgy hasn't lost any games yet either, so next Tuesday night's game ought to be something to see.

Thursday: Now it is time for rejoicing and merriment over in ADD. The Dirty Sox finally met a team they can beat. And they did. In the Potsareebies second game of the season they scored a total of 2 runs, while the Dirty Sox, playing heads-up, top-notch ball flashed 10 runners across the plate. There is no doubt about it, beautiful fielding by ADD held the Pots down while equally good hitting pushed their 10 runs. (Not to overlook a couple of Pozaribeez errors.) For the moment, from an ADD point of view up there on that pink cloud, they can see themselves playing in that 3rd round.
